

Director of Assessment Position Announcement

The College of Education is seeking candidates for the position of Director of Assessment to lead the College of Education's efforts to develop and maintain an integrated assessment system in support of the College's mission and strategic initiatives. The Director will work as a member of the College's leadership team and will collaborate with departments and faculty to design processes and systems relevant for data collection and utilization in support of the College's continuous improvement efforts, state licensure requirements, and program accreditation standards. The Director may be eligible for a faculty appointment.

Required Qualifications

- Master's Degree in Assessment, Statistics, Educational Research, or a closely related field, or combination of education and experience that demonstrates the candidate meets the qualifications for this position.
- Demonstrated experience with diverse assessment methods (typical experience 3 – 5 years).
- Expertise in assessment system design, collection and analysis of both quantitative and qualitative data, data management, and effective assessment reporting.
- Experience collaborating on and providing leadership for long term projects.
- Strong written and verbal communications skills.
- Demonstrated ability to collaborate with faculty, administrators, staff, students, and other stakeholders.
- Demonstrated experience working effectively in a diverse environment.

Desirable Qualifications

- Doctorate in Higher Education, Measurement and Statistics, Instructional Design, or closely related field.
- Experience working in a college or university.
- Knowledge of higher education accreditation and certification processes.

Applications: To apply, visit our website at <http://jobs.uiowa.edu>. Reference requisition #70271.

About the College

The College of Education is composed of more than 80 undergraduate and graduate degree programs, including licensure, endorsement, and certificate programs, many of which are regularly ranked among the best in the nation. Students study with our world-renowned faculty who are the leaders, scholars, and innovators in their fields. Our College is comprised of four departments: Educational Policy and Leadership Studies, Psychological and Quantitative Foundations, Rehabilitation and Counselor Education, and Teaching and Learning. The College's Strategic Plan centers our faculty, staff, and students around four priorities: student success, building knowledge and practice, innovating new frontiers, and creating better futures for Iowans.

About the University and Surrounding Community

The University of Iowa (UI) is world-renowned for its commitment to the arts, sciences, and humanities. UI has been a member of the Big Ten conference since 1899 and the Association of American Universities since 1909. UI ranks #33 among the nation's 629 public universities (U. S. News & World Report). More than 33,000 students earn bachelor's, graduate, and professional degrees from UI's 12 colleges.

UI is located in Iowa City, a UNESCO City of Literature that is widely recognized as one of the country's most livable communities. With 70,000 residents, Iowa City is an attractive haven for scholars, scientists, artists, writers, and professionals of all kinds. Highlights of living in Iowa City include outstanding affordable health care, excellent libraries and schools, historic neighborhoods, and a lively downtown. Chicago, St. Louis, and Minneapolis/St. Paul are a short car or bus trip away, and nearby Eastern Iowa Airport (CID) connects travelers to the world. The relationship between Iowa City and the UI is very cooperative and supportive.

The University of Iowa is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer. All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply and will receive consideration for employment free from discrimination on the basis of race, creed, color, national origin, age, sex, pregnancy, sexual orientation, gender identity, genetic information, religion, associational preference, status as a qualified individual with a disability, or status as a protected veteran.