ABOUT TREMONT'S FACILITIES:

The Institute is located inside Great Smoky Mountains National Park. Nestled beside the Middle Prong of the Little River, Tremont provides the perfect opportunity to retreat, study and enjoy nature with the convenience of an onsite heated and air conditioned dormitory. Meals are served family style in the dining hall located inside the activity center which also has classrooms and one large meeting room. Outside you will find a picnic pavilion and two covered campfire circles. The office building houses a bookstore featuring publications of the Great Smoky Mountains Association as well as other items. Of course, besides the facilities mentioned above, there is the entire national park available to you with all of its splendor, beauty and adventure.
