

Army Reserve Child, Youth & School Services

The Youth Leadership, Education & Development (YLEAD) Summit is a four-day, residential training experience for teens ages 14 – 17 with a Family member serving in the Army Reserve. YLEADs are conducted regionally.

YLEAD - Biloxi, MS March 29— April 1, 2012

Youth living in the following states and territory are invited to pre-register for this event:

Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia,
Florida and Tennessee

For additional details about this event, contact Kathleen Jennings at 504-450-9294 or kjennings@odysseytci.com

For a full list of locations, dates and to get pre-registered, visit www.arfp.org/ylead.

Youth Participants will:

- Meet other youth connected to the Army Reserve.
- Participate in activities that promote success at home, in school and within their community.
- Find out how to make a difference in the lives of Army Reserve Families.
- Discover ways to become involved through partnerships with teens, adults and community-based programs.

Parents want to know:

- The event is fully chaperoned!
- Your children will be engaged in positive youth development activities.
- Youth are placed on travel orders to cover transportation, lodging expenses and most meals at the hotel.
- Youth will learn more about the Army Reserve and Military Life, including how to better manage deployments.
