

2014 Pacific Telecommunications Council YOUNG SCHOLAR PROGRAM

Submission
Deadline:
15 August
2013

PTC is now accepting applications for the 2014 PTC Young Scholar Program.

PTC's Young Scholar Program aims to recognize, encourage, and support up-and-coming scholars in the field of information and communication technologies (ICTs).

Outstanding applicants for the 2014 PTC Young Scholar Program will be invited to present their research at PTC's 36th consecutive annual conference, PTC'14 New World, New Strategies, which will take place in Honolulu, Hawaii from 19–22 January 2014.

The 2014 PTC Young Scholar Program offers promising researchers the opportunity to:

- Present their research in a high-visibility academic and industry forum
- Receive detailed feedback from a panel of distinguished scholars and industry leaders
- Participate in PTC'14 activities
- Gain exposure to current industry issues and trends
- Meet PTC'14 attendees to share ideas, gain new insights, and identify possible practical applications of their research
- Network with industry professionals, members of international organizations and NGOs, government officials, and academics from over 60 countries

PTC will also cover the travel expenses associated with attending PTC'14 for the selected applicants to attend the conference and present their research.

Visit ptc.org to learn more about the 2014 PTC Young Scholar Program.

PACIFIC TELECOMMUNICATIONS COUNCIL