Announcing this year's Social Media Expo

The 2014 organizers are pleased to announce that the Social Media Expo will again be a part of the iConference. Student teams from member iSchools are invited to craft an entry around the theme of "leveraging social media to foster a smarter society." A letter of interest from a sponsoring faculty member is due Nov. 1, with final submissions due Dec. 2, 23:00 GMT. Microsoft Research will provide $3,000 to help each selected team attend the iConference, with the expectation that each team's school will help cover remaining costs. The Expo is open to teams from schools that are members of the iSchools organization only. Complete details at <http://ischools.org/the-icongference/program/social-media-expo/> iConference 2014 will take place 4-7 March, 2014, in Berlin, Germany.

Registration will open in October 2013. More about the conference—including popular topics and links to past proceedings—can be found on the conference website: <http://ischools.org/the-icongference/>. All information scholars, researchers and practitioners are invited to attend!

iConference 2014 is presented by the iSchools organization (www.ischools.org) and hosted by The Berlin School of Library and Information Science at Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin; its program is administered by the Royal School of Library and Information Science, University of Copenhagen. The presenting sponsor is Microsoft Research; additional support from Emerald Publishing and De Gruyter.
