

The CONSULTING RELATIONSHIP

What it is, what it isn't

Mary Knepper, President, founder, and owner of Ryba Associates, Inc, delivers custom communication training and documentation to corporations, scientific communities, and universities; coaches executives on developing their image and delivering their message in print and speech; leads teams on creating and delivering training in aluminum and steel rolling mills; consults in communication to tax, marketing, research and development, engineering, and technology clients.

She has taught at Oklahoma State, Benedictine University, Northwestern, Northern Illinois, University of Aristotle (Thessalonica, Greece), and the Graham School at the University of Chicago. She served as chair for the Humanities Division of George Williams College before leaving to begin a consultancy. She has served as adjunct faculty at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, where she taught technical communication.
