

HOWLOWEEN

POOCH PARADE AND PET EXPO

Sunday, October 19, 2-5 p.m.  In the UT Gardens

Presented by the UT College of Veterinary Medicine & the UT Gardens

Enjoy a costumed pet parade judged by locally known dog lovers. Food trucks, dog rescue groups, pet businesses, educational booths, children's activities and lots of other exciting doggie demos will make for a howling good time!

 Cruze Farm, Gonzo Gourmet, Tootsie Truck

When participating in any event with your pets ...

SAFETY TIPS

-  Vaccinations should be current.
-  Make sure your pets are socialized to other pets, people, and costumes.
-  Bring water for your pets.
-  Prepare for your pets' comfort (excessive heat or cold temps).
-  Limit participation of pets that are very shy or get stressed easily.
-  Make certain to have safe and sturdy pet restraint items (collar, leash and harness).

COSTUME JUDGING CATEGORIES

-  Best in Show
-  Most creative
-  Pet-Owner look-a-like
-  Scariest costume
-  Funniest costume
-  Most glamorous costume
-  Only a mom could love
-  Judges' choice

Grady and his human companion, who love walking in the park and jumping in the lake, want to see what costumes will be on display! Grady's mom, local celebrity Erin Donovan, will be emceeing the Pooch Parade.

Emceed by Erin Donovan

Come see my mom!

Event is free to attend. Parade preregistration fee is $5 per canine, $10 at event. Parade will begin at 3:00 p.m.