

Call For Submissions

PURSUIT

The Journal of Undergraduate Research

Pursuit is an international, multidisciplinary research journal dedicated to publishing the scholarly works of undergraduates. The editors and review board are undergraduate students who review submissions and work with select faculty and staff from the University of Tennessee to publish Pursuit.

Pursuit is currently accepting submissions for the Spring 2016 edition (Volume 7, Issue 1). Submissions must have been written during the author's undergraduate studies, though authors may submit work to Pursuit up to one year after graduating.

Final submission deadline: February 7th, 2016.

Humanities and Social Science papers may be up to 30 pages maximum; Science and Engineering papers may be up to 15 pages maximum. Endnotes must be used instead of footnotes. Please include a short biography of yourself.

Submit your research papers or theses as a .doc or .docx file to the Pursuit website at Trace: <http://trace.tennessee.edu/pursuit>

Please email the Editor-in-Chief, Sahba Seddighi (sseddigh@vols.utk.edu), with any questions.
