Subject: American Elasmobranch Society 2016 meeting (Including biology and conservation of sawfish symposium)

Hello! The 2016 American Elasmobranch Society conference is now accepting abstracts. This meeting will be July 6-10 in New Orleans, as part of the Joint Meeting of Ichthyologists and Herpetologists.

This year, the featured symposium will be "the biology, ecology and conservation of sawfish".

If you would like to submit an abstract to the meeting, the link is: <https://asih.conference-services.net/authorlogin.asp?conferenceID=4943&language=en-uk>

Thanks!

Sincerely,
