Subject: Shark research internship

How would you like a free month of shark research? We're offering 3 free places on our internship this year in June, July and August (one per month), to those interested in field research.

To be considered, email info@oceans-research.com with 50 words to describe why we should pick you. Remember to include your contact details in the email and use the hashtag #myownsharkweek as the subject.

* Prize worth US $1,900 per person

* Includes: one month's accommodation, food, participation and airport transfers from/to George, South Africa. Does not include flights / travel to South Africa, travel insurance, leisure and outside activities

* Participants must be age 18+

Many thanks

Esther
