Article V SELECTION, APPOINTMENT, AND SEPARATION

5.02 Disqualification of Applicants

Reasons for disqualification of an applicant from employment consideration by the Human Resource Office may include, but are not limited to, one or more of the following:

- Lacks the minimum qualifications established for the position;
- Is unable to perform the duties of the position as demonstrated through reference and other background reviews;
- Has been convicted of a crime which raises serious doubt as to the suitability of the applicant to assume the responsibilities of the position;
- Has made false statement of material fact in the application;
- Has used or attempted to use bribery to secure an advantage in the appointment;
- Has failed to submit a completed application or has failed to meet the established time limits; or
- Has refused to take a pre-employment drug test or failed to pass said test.

Has an adverse employment or other record or history, as determined by EBCI through a pre-employment background investigation.

Has a conflict as outlined in Sections 4.02 or 4.03

NOTICE OF MANDATORY CRIMINAL HISTORY CHECKS

Federal law requires that a criminal history check be conducted on all individuals whose duties and responsibilities would allow them regular contact with or control over children. The Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians (EBCI) and affiliated entities (i.e., covered employers) also require that criminal history checks be conducted on all volunteers who will have regular contact with or control over children.

Covered employers will employ and allow as volunteers only individuals who meet the standards of character required for an individual's fitness to have responsibility for the safety and well being of children as outlined in the Cherokee Code.

Your initials will indicate that you have been notified of the mandatory criminal records check as a condition of your employment in positions that require regular contact with children. You have a right to obtain a copy of the criminal history report that will be made available to the covered employer and the right to challenge the accuracy and completeness of the information contained in the report.

Covered employers may also require background checks for any other employee or applicant it deems appropriate.

_____ (Initials)

I authorize the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians to perform a criminal history check in connection with my fitness to be an employee or volunteer for EBCI. I understand that EBCI shall not be held legally accountable in any way for providing my identifying information to any consumer credit agency, Federal Bureau of Investigation, state, local or tribal entities. I release EBCI from any and all liability which may be incurred as a result of furnishing such information.

I authorize the release of any information, record, file or document requested by the EBCI from any and all private or public institutions, organizations, and governmental agencies. All information may be furnished as if the request is made by me in person or in writing.

I certify that to the best of my knowledge and belief all of the information on and attached to this application is true, correct, complete and made in good faith. I understand that a false or fraudulent answer to any question on any part of this application may be grounds for not hiring me, or for firing me after I begin work, and may be punishable under the federal perjury laws by fine or imprisonment according to the United States Code, Title 18, Section 1001.

TRIBAL DRUG AND ALCOHOL POLICY

Recognizing the need to protect Tribal employees and the public from the risks posed by the abuse of alcohol and drugs, the Tribe has established certain requirements of its employees and applicants for employment. A copy of the Tribe's Drug and Alcohol Policy as found in Article IX of the Tribal Personnel Policy is attached as part of this application.

The specific goals of the Tribal Drug and Alcohol Policy are to educate employees about the dangers and problems associated with substance abuse; facilitate the prevention of substance abuse, identify any employees who may be engaging in substance abuse and identify the substance(s), provide opportunities for counseling and treatment of employees abusing drugs and/or alcohol, protect the public and coworkers from those employees abusing drugs or alcohol and develop a drug free workplace and community.

The policy includes pre-employment drug testing of all applicants for employment. Once hired, random drug testing, post-accident testing and testing based on reasonable suspicion is a condition of continued employment.

I have read the drug policy contained in Article IX of the Tribal Personnel Policy and understand it. I understand that applicants and employee testing is required by the policy. Should I become an employee of EBCI, I agree to comply with the rules and regulations as described in the policy, I consent to drug and alcohol testing as outlined in the policy, and understand that failure to abide by the requirements of the policy may lead to disciplinary action being taken against me, which may include termination.

I hereby consent to the taking of my hair and/ or urine samples and to the testing of such samples by a drug-testing laboratory designated by EBCI. I hereby further consent to the release of the drug/ alcohol test results from the laboratory to a designated EBCI agent. I release and discharge EBCI, its officers and agents, from any claim or liability arising from the use of such tests for any decisions concerning employment made by EBCI based, in whole or in part, upon the result of such test.
