

STC-ETC Honors J. Paul Blakely with Student Awards, April 29, 7:00pm, FIVE Knoxville, Gay Street, Knoxville

Many STC-ETC members remember J. Paul Blakely for his exceptional service to the chapter, Society, and community at large. He was especially supportive of students in their development as technical communicators. Despite a diagnosis of cancer, he continued to achieve and encourage others to achieve.

It is in his honor that the chapter presents monetary awards to students who show promise as exceptional technical communicators and service-oriented professionals.

Please join the chapter in congratulating this year's winners of the J. Paul Blakely Award.

Here are the details:

Event: Blakely Awards Dinner and Presentation

Place: FIVE Knoxville, 430 S. Gay Street, Knoxville, TN, 37902

Date: Friday, April 29, 2016

Time: 7:00pm

Food: five-bar.com

Benefit: Celebrate excellence in science writing, our profession, and encourage student achievement

Action: RSVP to Jessica Hingtgen (jessica.hingtgen@gmail.com) by 5pm, Thursday, April 28