

Invitation to Currently Enrolled College and University Students

Knoxville Opera is seeking 40 students to volunteer for its unique production of Puccini's Tosca.

Italy's greatest diva...
Torture, murder, & suicide...
A masterpiece of corruption & betrayal!

For the first time in history, the cast, orchestra, and audience will "travel the streets of 1800 Rome" together to experience Tosca's tragic final hours.
(more information at www.KnoxvilleOpera.com/Tosca)

All volunteers will be provided a complimentary seat in each venue, a box dinner (sandwich, chips, cookie, beverage) between Acts 1 & 2, and a free ticket to Knoxville Opera's October 2016 production of The Pirates of Penzance.

Volunteer activities may include ushering, indoor/outdoor logistics, and riding buses.

Volunteers are required to attend

Training: Thursday, April 28, 6pm to 11pm

Performance: Saturday, April 30, Noon to 10pm

Performance attire is suit/tie for men; dressy blouse/skirt or pants/dress for ladies.
Schedule details and parking information will be provided prior to the training session.

Act 1 is located at Church Street United Methodist Church
(corner of Henley Street and Cumberland Avenue)

Act 2 is located in the Knoxville Convention Exhibition Center
(NOT the Knoxville Convention Center)
(only access is at bottom of the escalator in the Holiday Inn World's Fair Park hotel)

Act 3 is located in the World's Fair Park Amphitheater
(between the water and the South Lawn)

Those wishing to take advantage of this opportunity must contact Sarah Fitch at sfitch@KnoxvilleOpera.com or 865-524-0795 ext. 251 by Friday, April 8 at 5pm.

Thank you for your consideration.
