

David L Nieland

Subject: Graduate Student Workshop on Socio-Environmental Synthesis at SESYNC

Calling all graduate students interested in socio-environmental synthesis and interdisciplinary collaboration:

The deadline is approaching (May 8) to apply for the National Socio-Environmental Synthesis Center's third annual Graduate Student Workshop on Socio-Environmental Synthesis: Interdisciplinary Proposal Writing and Collaboration, held from June 13-15 in Annapolis, Maryland. There is no cost to attend and travel and accommodation are provided.

For more information and to apply, please visit: <https://www.sesync.org/opportunities/research-education-workshops/graduate-student-workshop-on-socio-environmental>

Nicole Motzer
Graduate Pursuit Facilitator
National Socio-Environmental Synthesis Center (SESYNC)
www.sesync.org