ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF ATMOSPHERIC AND CLIMATE SCIENCE
NORTHLAND COLLEGE
Ashland, Wisconsin

PAY RANGE:
$50,000 - $52,000
APPLICATION DEADLINE:
December 1, 2016

Northland College is an environmentally-committed college on the shores of Lake Superior. The Environmental Science Program at the College invites dynamic and proven educators to apply for a tenure-track assistant professor position in atmospheric and climate science. A PhD (conferred by August 2017) in climate science, atmospheric science, meteorology, or related field is required.

The teaching load will consist of six courses per year in atmospheric and climate science, such as meteorology, oceanography, climate science, and courses in the area of the candidate's expertise. The successful applicant must demonstrate:

- (1) a commitment to the liberal arts and the ability to teach and work with persons from culturally diverse backgrounds
- (2) service to the college and the community, and
- (3) scholarly work that provides research opportunities for undergraduates.

HOW TO APPLY:
Submit (in PDF format)

- (1) a letter that describes your interest in Northland College, your teaching experience and performance, your experience working with diverse students who have varying levels of mathematical preparedness, and your potential for engaging undergraduates in research, and
- (2) a curriculum vitae, including the names, titles, and contact information for at least three professional references.

Official transcripts will be requested of all candidates selected as finalists.

Application Deadline: December 1, 2016
