Subject: INCLUDES Conference on Evaluation: Application Deadline Approaching!

To those interested in STEM education:

We are hosting an NSF-funding INCLUDES Conference on "Multi-Scale Evaluation in STEM Education" and a Pre-Conference Tutorial on "Modern Methods in Program Evaluation." Funding is available for travel and local support. The deadline to apply is November 21, the activities will be in Knoxville, TN and the Tutorial is on February 22 with the Conference on February 23-24, 2017.

Full details at <http://www.nimbios.org/IncludesConf/>

We are also hosting a webinar on "Program Evaluation 101" two weeks prior to the Conference. An outstanding group of experts in project and program evaluation will be leading activities at these gatherings that can assist your efforts in STEM education.

Feel free to contact me if you have any questions about these activities or would like to initiate conversations regarding evaluation components of your projects.

Best regards, Dr. Louis J. Gross, NIMBioS Director Emeritus (gross@NIMBioS.org)
