

From: Jim Anderson
Subject: Mussel Short Course, February 26-March 2, 2018, Harrisville, WV

The WVU Natural History Museum will be offering a professional development course titled “Freshwater Mussels of West Virginia: Life History and Identification” taught by mussel biologist Janet Clayton of the WV DNR. This course will be taught at North Bend State Park in Harrisville, WV, February 26 – March 2, 2018. The cost will be $600.00. Please register through WVU Continuing Education: Courses and Registration/Sustainability/ Course ID 35937. Additionally, you will have to make arrangements for your own accommodations (Rooms will be blocked under WVUNH Mussel Class at North Bend State Park, (304-643-2932), single room $60.00 plus tax, Double room $70.50 plus tax, Cabins will also be available). Please contact Donna Hartman for more information, donna.hartman@mail.wvu.edu, (304) 293-3687.

James T. Anderson, Ph.D.
Davis-Michael Professor Forestry and Natural Resources
West Virginia University
(304) 293-3825 Office
<http://wildlife.wvu.edu/>