Subject: $2,000 grants for environmentally-related research

Calling graduate students (master's, phd) and postdocs working in environment, public policy and natural resources, the Seal Awards is giving grants up to $2,000 USD.

Deadline to apply is March 14th 2018 and eligible applicants must be currently residing in the US.

Please share with friends who could use the support: www.instrumentl.com/grants/seal-grants

Last year's SEAL Awards grants went to 8 researchers based in universities around the US.

Good luck!
Angela
