A Tasting Menu of Mathematical Models

What Can They Do and How They Might Help in Your Research

We invite graduate students, post-docs and faculty to join us for an afternoon of "A Tasting Menu of Mathematical Models" at NIMBioS.

- Presentation on what types of models there are and what they can do for you
- Q&A on how modeling might fit into your grant proposals, research, and teaching
- Break-outs on research areas where modeling doesn't yet play a big role, but could
- Lunch!

11:45-3 p.m.*

Tuesday, October 16, 2018

Join us for the entire event or feel free to drop in as your schedule allows.*

Registration required, visit <http://nimbios.org/mathmod4u>

Registration deadline: Friday, Oct. 12

Hosted by the Mathematical Modeling Consulting Center at NIMBioS
