

Fall 2020 Programs

ACADEMIC INCLUSIVE
INITIATIVES

UT LEAD Series

The UT LEAD Series includes three programs that are open to UT LEAD scholars. These programs will cover topics related to diversity and inclusion, academic success, and building a sense of community for first-generation scholars.

FIRST TO GO & WHAT TO KNOW | SEPTEMBER 16, 4:00 P.M.

It's great to be a first-generation college student! First-gen students are trailblazers and pioneers. As the first to go, you may have questions about the college experience. Let your fellow first-gen Vols help by attending a panel. Learn how to navigate Rocky Top and overcome challenges that may arise along the way.

RSVP HERE

LANGUAGE MATTERS: A WORKSHOP ON MICROAGGRESSIONS | OCTOBER 15, 4:00 P.M.

Microaggressions frequently occur on college campuses. What are they? Who uses them? How do we recognize what they are? How do we respond? In this workshop we will gain a better understanding of microaggressions and biases, discuss complicity towards microaggressive actions, and explore strategies to minimize the use and impact of microaggressions on campus.

RSVP HERE

LEADING WITH CONFIDENCE: OVERCOMING IMPOSTOR SYNDROME | NOVEMBER 3, 6:00 P.M.

Impostor syndrome is the belief that one's successes are the product of luck or fraud rather than skill. Join us to gain a better understanding of the symptoms, causes, and effects of impostor syndrome. Explore the roots of impostor syndrome and strategies that can be employed to combat feelings of self-doubt and inadequacy so that you can lead with confidence.

RSVP HERE

Connect with us!

Instagram: @aiiutk
Email: aii@utk.edu

Greve Hall 302

Academic Inclusion Series

The Academic Inclusion series includes two programs that are open to all UT scholars. These programs will cover topics related to academic success, leadership skills, and goal setting.

BEING U AT UT: EXPLORING AUTHENTIC LEADERSHIP | OCTOBER 14 & 15, 5:00 P.M.

Being U is key, but sometimes it's hard to balance who you are and who people want you to be. Authentic Leadership can set you on a path to stay grounded in who you are. During this program, we will explore how to be a leader in your own unique way.

RSVP HERE

GETTING AHEAD OF THE GAME! GOAL SETTING FOR THE NEXT SEMESTER | NOVEMBER 18 & 19, 5:00 P.M.

Do you want a head start on spring 2021? We can help you set your goals for next semester and gear up for success!

RSVP HERE

Men of Color Series

The Men of Color Series includes three programs that are open to UT scholars who identify as Men of Color. These programs will focus on academic success and leadership and establishing a community for Men of Color.

IF I HAD ONE WISH...ADVICE FOR MEN OF COLOR AT UT | SEPTEMBER 23, 5:00 P.M.

Want to know what Men of Color at UT wish they knew before starting college? Come find out and get the inside scoop on the best advice on how to persevere as a Volunteer!

RSVP HERE

IT'S LIT: LEADERSHIP AND IDENTITY TALK | OCTOBER 22, 5:00 P.M.

There's more to leadership than meets the eye. Join us and explore how your personal identities influence how you exhibit leadership qualities in and outside of the classroom.

RSVP HERE

THE CIRCLE: THE IMPORTANCE OF BRANDING AND SOCIAL MEDIA | NOVEMBER 5, 5:00 P.M.

Want to leave your mark at UT? The things you do online and on campus in college can impact the years ahead. Now is the perfect time to start creating your personal brand. Join us and explore your digital identity and be on your way to creating your personal brand!

RSVP HERE