2021 Tennessee Climate Data Summit

May 25th & May 26th

1:30-4:30 (Eastern)/12:30-3:30 (Central)

The Tennessee Climate Office at East Tennessee State University, in partnership with NOAA's National Centers for Environmental Information and the American Association of State Climatologists, will host Tennessee's first ever Climate Data Summit. This is a free, 2-day virtual event occurring in the afternoons of Tuesday, May 25th and Wednesday May 26th.

We will hear from national and regional groups, including representatives from NOAA, the National Weather Service, the USDA, the National Drought Mitigation Center, the Integrated Drought Information System, various state agencies, neighboring state climate offices, and others.

Advance registration is required. Join for all or part! CLICK HERE to view the agenda and register or follow the short URL: bit.ly/3uXUkcR
