

AAG-GTU

Travel Awards

2023

The AAG-GTU Travel Award provides support for student members of GTU to attend the national annual meeting of the American Association of Geographers in Denver. Travel awards are available with preference to geography undergraduate and graduate students who are attending an AAG meeting for the first time and who will serve as an author or co-author on a paper or poster being presented at the meeting.

The 2023 Annual Meeting of the AAG will be virtual and in-person. The awards will be reimbursed to GTU students for the cost of the virtual ($50) and in-person (up to $200) registrations if they attend the 2023 meeting.

Application deadline: December 1, 2022

See the GTU website for applications
Submit applications to kdjohn@bgsu.edu.

<https://gammathetaupsilon.org/travel-award-application.html>

