

VOLS MAKING AN IMPACT IN INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

A HOMECOMING VISIT WITH UTK ALUMNI LEADING THE GLOBAL FIGHT ON HEALTH CHALLENGES, FOOD INSECURITY, AND POVERTY

Friday, October 21 from 12:30-2:00pm

Located in Hodges Library, Room 101

Free Event - Open to all students

Dr. Maria Hinson Tobin '13

Senior Director of Development, Corporate Partnerships for CARE

Lives and works in Atlanta, Georgia

B.S. in Biological Sciences

M.S. in Global Health from Notre Dame

DrPH in Public Health from Univ of Georgia

Amber Sheets '07, '10

Senior Technical Advisor, Digital Health Monitoring for Population Services International

Lives and works in Harare, Zimbabwe

B.A. in Political Science (Honors)

M.A. in Comparative Politics & International Relations

Lindsay McClain '09

Executive Director of Generations For Peace USA

Lives and works in Washington, DC

Has worked abroad in Uganda, Jordan, & South Africa

B.S. in Peace Studies & Conflict Resolution (College Scholars)

M.S. in Peace Studies & Conflict Resolution from Notre Dame

HOWARD H. BAKER JR.
CENTER FOR PUBLIC POLICY

Event co-sponsored by: the Center for Global Engagement, Global Studies Program, Political Science Department, Center for Career Development & Academic Exploration, and the Smith Center for International Sustainable Agriculture