

Booklist Reader ALA/Mellon Foundation Grant 2023

The American Library Association and Booklist Publications invite you to apply for a new grant opportunity. This generous grant, from the Mellon Foundation, is restricted to public libraries that serve small populations, rural populations, or diverse populations. This grant will add resources to your collection development, readers' advisory, and reader services program. Deadline to complete the application is February 28, 2023. There is no cost for participating libraries.

Please complete this application to be considered for a year of Booklist Reader copies to distribute freely to your patrons. Booklist Reader is Booklist's new library patron-facing magazine, featuring diverse readers' advisory recommendations, of books in print and on audio, for readers of all ages. Each month, Booklist Reader issues are filled with high-interest lists that showcase books patrons can read and check out now.

You will also receive a year of Booklist magazine and Booklist Online for your staff's use. You'll have the tools to share the digital editions of Booklist Reader through your website to share with your whole service area.

If your library is selected, you will be notified by email with more details, including expected first issue dates and online access instructions. We value your privacy and will never share your information with anyone outside of the American Library Association without your permission.
