

Vanderbilt University Library Special Collections and University Archives Presents:
A Two-day Cultural Heritage Preservation Summit
on Digital Preservation & Access for Audiovisual Resources

Day 1: Wednesday July 19, 2023

Keynote address

“Remaking Meaning in the Music Time in Africa Radio Archive”

Paul Conway

Associate Professor Emeritus, University of Michigan School of Information

10:30 am Wed. July 19

Vanderbilt University Heard Library Community Room, 4th Fl.

One-to-One Consultations on Issues in Digitization & Preservation with Paul Conway

To schedule, contact: Elizabeth K. Batiuk [elizabeth.k.batiuk@vanderbilt.edu]

1:30pm to 3:30 pm Wed. July 19

Vanderbilt University Library Special Collections and University Archives
1101 19th Ave. South, Conference Room 118

An Open Dialogue on Digital Preservation with

Tim Gollins, Director Special Collections and University Archives, Vanderbilt University
Paul Conway, Associate Professor Emeritus, University of Michigan School of Information

4:30 pm Wed. July 19

Vanderbilt University Heard Library, 419 21st Ave. South, Community Room, 4th Fl.

Day 2: Thursday, July 20, 2023

A Seminar-Workshop:
“Topics in Audio-visual Heritage Preservation and Access”

Case Study Presenters:

Paul Conway, School of Information, University of Michigan

Jim Duran, Television New Archive, Vanderbilt University

Martin Fisher, Center for Popular Music, Middle Tennessee State University

Rebecca Frank, School of Information Sciences, University of Tennessee-Knoxville

Rogers Hall, Peabody College, Vanderbilt University

9:00 am to Noon, Thurs. July 20, 2023

Vanderbilt University Special Collections and University Archives
1101 19th Ave. South
1st floor Classroom, Room 108

The event is free, but please register: <https://forms.gle/aGeqzRoXdVeVVUVN9>