Sustainable Development in Appalachia

Fall, 2023

TR 12:55pm-2:10pm

More than just the mountains we hike!
Geography 362 offers a look at Appalachia as a unique and diverse region of country.

Topics include:

- Appalachian culture and identity
- The history of extractive industries
 - Environmental issues
- Sustainable practices and economic development
- Special topics from community organizers working in the region
- You'll only have to listen to Rocky Top once!
